A

CHRISTMAS OFFERING,

HUMBLY PRESENTED

BY THE

CHARITY CHILDREN,

OF

Chriſt Church, in Surrey.

1788.

I.

AWAKE, awake, the ſacred Song,
To our incarnate Lord;
Let every Heart, and every Tongue,
Adore the eternal Word.

II.

Then ſhone Almighty Power and Love,
In all their glorious Forms;
To dwell with ſinful Worms.

III.

To dwell with Miſery below,
And ſunk to Wretchedneſs and Woe,
That worthleſs Man might riſe.

IV.

Adoring Angels tun'd their Songs,
To hail the joyful Day;
With Rapture then, let Mortals' Tongues,
Their grateful Worſhip pay.

Printed by R. PARSLEY, at the Dunciad, near Chriſt-Church, Surrey.
